- 1. Applicants amendment of 10/24/91 has been considered in preparing this office action.
- 2. The text of those sections of Title 35, US Code not included in this action can be found in a prior office action.
- 3. Claim 27 stands rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

At pages 3-4 of the amendment, applicant argues that as a computer program residing on a computer compatible medium is a good, it is similarly an article of manufacture which falls under the gamut of allowable subject matter under 35 U.S.C. 101.

Non-statutory subject matter cannot be automatically converted into statutory subject matter merely by broadly labeling the claim as an article of manufacture or by drafting the claim with token references to something that is statutory subject matter, such as "computer compatible medium"; this form of draftsmanship would amount to elevating form over substance.

4. Claims 1-27 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over Beck et al.

Applicant argues that claims in an application are to be given their broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the specification. However, if applicant wishes to rely on the more specific interpretation, then it must be reflected in the claim language. Meanwhile, the examiner maintains that his interpretation of the claim language is reasonable; and the claims are rendered obvious by the cited reference.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST RESPONSE IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 CFR 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING

DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
